

BENSHAM MANOR School

Childcare Curriculum Map 2025-2026

	Year 10 Pathway 1 - WJEC pathways	Year 10 Pathway 2	Year 11
Autumn Term 1	Pathways-The Family Covering topics: identifying different daily structures - nuclear, extended, single parent etc. identify the functions of the family - procreating, socialising, supportive etc. The roles of parents in a modern society. Difficulties that may arise within families such as bereavement, unemployment, illness, child abuse, divorce, separation. Identify support agencies for families.	Sex and Relationships Covering topics: communicate the name of the friend and family member with whom the relationship exists, communicate feelings about this relationship, recognise parts of the body that are similar, recognise changes that will happen to males and females during puberty, recognise from which part of the body a baby is born.	Preparation For Pregnancy and Birth Covering topics: before having a baby, roles and responsibilities, methods of contraception, stages of pregnancy, antenatal care, the role of a partner during birth.
Autumn Term 2	Pathways-The Family Covering topics: identifying different daily structures -	Sex and Relationships Covering topics: communicate the name of the friend and family member with whom the relationship	Preparation For Pregnancy and Birth Covering topics: before having a baby, roles and nuclear, extended, single parent etc. identify the functions of the family - procreating, socialising, supportive etc. The roles of parents in a modern society. Difficulties that may arise within families such as bereavement, unemployment, illness, child abuse, divorce, separation. Identify support agencies for families.	exists, communicate feelings about this relationship, recognise parts of the body that are similar, recognise changes that will happen to males and females during puberty, recognise from which part of the body a baby is born.	responsibilities, methods of contraception, stages of pregnancy, antenatal care, the role of a partner during birth.

Spring Term 1	Pathways- Contraception, Conception and Pregnancy Covering topics: types of contraception, how they are used, emergency	Contraception Covering topics: the different methods of contraception, the process of conception, the development of the foetus at twelve, twenty-four, thirty-six and forty weeks.	Care of a New Baby Covering topics: the role of a health visitor, needs of a premature baby, benefits of breast and bottle, definition, process and stages of weaning.

	contraception, advantages and disadvantages, what is 'emergency' contraception, consequences of unprotected sex, different places to get advice.
Spring Term 2	Pathway - Preparation for Pregnancy and Birth Covering topics: before having a baby, roles and responsibilities, methods of contraception, stages of pregnancy, antenatal care, the role of a partner during birth.	Contraception Covering topics: the different methods of contraception, the process of conception, the development of the foetus at twelve, twenty-four, thirty-six and forty weeks.	Care of a New Baby Covering topics: the role of a health visitor, needs of a premature baby, benefits of breast and bottle, definition, process and stages of weaning.

Summer Term 1	Pathway -Preparation for Pregnancy and Birth As above	Human Reproduction Covering topics: puberty: changes that occur in both boys and girls during puberty. Fertilisation: How a sperm fertilises an egg cell. Implantation: How the resulting ball of cells (embryo) embeds itself in the wall of the uterus. Pregnancy Development: How the embryo develops into a baby over the nine months of pregnancy. Birth Control: The basic mechanism of how birth control pills work. Fertility Treatments: How fertility drugs can help infertile women become pregnant.	Care of the New Baby Covering topics: the role of a health visitor, needs of a premature baby, benefits of breast and bottle, definition, process and stages of weaning.
Summer Term 2	Pathway -Preparation For Pregnancy and Birth As above	Human Reproduction As above	